Callisthenics

Are a benefit to healthy women. But to women who are suffering from diseases of the sex they are an injury. There is a weak back or bearing-down pains, headache or other indications of womanly weakness, exercise can only aggravate the condition. The womanly health must be first restored before developed by exercise.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It does this by healing the womanly diseases which undermine the general health. It stops the drains that weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration of the female system, cures female weakness.

When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansvoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drudge, bearing-down pains, weak and nervous, and I began taking your medicine. After taking first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of Golden Medical Discovery, and one of Pleasant Pellets, and I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good medicine you have sent me."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets promote regularity of the bowels, and assist the action of "Favorite Prescription." No laxative should be used with Dr. Pierce's medicines.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh.

UMBRELLA WORRIES KING.

King George, of Greece, who is visiting Paris semi-incognito, came near being arrested on the street as a common thief a few days since. He had dined alone at a good unpretentious restaurant. After King George had settled his bill the waiter helped him on with his overcoat, handing him a tightly folded umbrella which the King accepted mindfully placed under his arm, not remembering that he had no umbrella when he entered the place. The owner of the umbrella only discovered his loss when he himself was leaving a half hour later. The proprietor of the restaurant paid for the lost article. Nevertheless, two hours afterward, when the man, walking the boulevards, chanced to meet the King with the umbrella still under his arm, he assaulted him, with great fury. A great gathering immediately formed. The King, confused, looked really guilty, despite his apologies and embarrassed protests.

A policeman invited both contenders to come to the station, when two men dashed through the crowd and whispered magically quieting words to the officer and the owner of the umbrella, and then made a passage for the King, who got away before anybody else could learn his identity.

When King George's assailant learned of his mistake he immediately set about to sue for "a silver-handled umbrella which King George of Greece once stole from a private citizen, who by plucking and chance succeeded in recapturing the same day." Bids had already reached $50, when the police ordered the crowd to disperse.

QUEEN PROPOSED TO DUKE.—Queen Wilhelmina looked radiant when driving through the streets of Amsterdam on Saturday with her betrothed. It is reported that the love is chiefly on her side as Duke Heinrich of Mecklenburg-Schwerin had given his heart to a German Princess.

The Queen met the Duke for the first time last spring, when his affectionate preoccupation, he treated her with natural courtesy, but without the obsequiousness she was accustomed to at the hands of the German prince. This time the Queen, who, in her private life, will show a marked preference for Heinrich. He gradually melted, partly through parental influence, and notified the Queen's mother that he would accept an offer of marriage from the young Queen.

Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin arrived at Amsterdam on Saturday with the Dowager Queen Emma. The train was decorated with flags. At the station Queen Emma introduced the Duke to the authorities present.

When the royal party left the station the crowd cheered without cessation. On arriving at the palace the royal persons appeared on the balcony, when they were again greeted by the people with tremendous applause, the immense concourse singing the national hymn with great enthusiasm.

SAYS LABOR MUST PAY FOR WAR.—The Anti-Imperialist League at Calcutta is preparing for distribution an "address to the Laboring and Producing Classes of the United States," by ex-Governor Boutwell, in which he says that an army of 60,000 men has been employed in the Philippines at a cost of $4,000,000 a week and the sacrifice of many lives each month. He says:

"The war is going on at an enormous cost in men and money and without justification on our part. The laboring population must furnish the men either by voluntary enlistments or through conscription, which, upon the present basis, are not less than $12 annually for every family of five persons, are to be paid by taxes or an increase of the public debt, which is taxation delayed. Every stamp duty paid by a banker or landlord or dealer in merchandise is a revenue assessment upon labor that at some time must be paid. The war chiefly concerns the laboring and producing classes of the country."

FOUGHT SNAKE IN STREET.—An Australian land snake, six feet three inches long, arrived on Saturday, at the Atlantic & Pacific Bird company's store, in Chicago, and Harry Diamond, an employee, undertook to remove it to the express box to a cage. The snake darted forward and striking again and again at the young man, beat him off and made his way to the floor. The door was open and out into Madison street the snake glided toward Fifth avenue.

Half-way between Madison and Washington streets, on Fifth avenue, Diamond overtook the snake. Grasping it, the man started on a run toward the store. Twice the snake reached the store. Twice the snake reached around his body, with its head darting forward and backward, angry hisses striking terror in the hearts of hundreds of people who witnessed the scene.

J. Slotkin, proprietor of the store, came to his clerk's assistance and carried off the snake.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, who used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequaled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by all druggists.

While There is Life There is Hope.
I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—(Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.)
The Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.
The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sell by druggists at 50 cts., or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren st., New York.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Chamberlain's Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

It is well to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and skin diseases and ugly wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Chamberlain's will be offered. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel.
